ARTIST STATEMENT

The edge is closer than we think, but illusion won't free us from reality, even as the sustained narrative of tabloids becomes history and the myth of progress continues to perpetuate inequality. Globalization has moved forward unevenly and no-one can say where this "New Frontier" is leading us. As the natural world is liquidated and substituted with an artificial one, the social landscape becomes increasingly fractured and alienated. No longer in focus, all grand narratives dissipate in the space of post-history, as technological dependency diminishes the tangibility of our experiences. The medium has swallowed the message.

Our time is marked by mass extinction, diminishing resources, global pandemic and climate change. As the vices of the first world burden the third, the skeletons of old factories serve as caveats of growing inequality. The silent landscape a symptom of a world exploited beyond use and increasingly reduced to a bottom line. Political dissidence is drowned out by the white noise of the media, as it sedates the social psyche with empty promises it proposes for the future it truncates.

Working across different media- film, video, installation, photography, sculpture, sound and text, Heydt presents an abstract proposition for a world on the periphery of history, one that not only appears haunted by the ghosts of the past, but built on it. Conflating time and place, her layered imagery collides, merges and disrupts logical relationships between occurrences. Through adding and subtracting meaning by combining images of destruction with portrayals of the virtues born from the American Dream, Heydt confronts the disillusionment of our time with the ecological and existential nightmare it is responsible for.

BIOGRAPHY

Sam Heydt (born April 20, 1986) is an American social practice and recycled media artist born/raised in New York City. Although currently residing in Vienna, Heydt has lived/worked in Paris, Venice, Amsterdam, Athens, Buenos Aires, Sydney, Reykjavík and Rajasthan. Her academic career traversed Parsons School of Design, The New School, Cooper Union, University of Amsterdam, Universidad of Buenos Aires and La Sorbonne. In 2012, Heydt launched Jane Street Studio, L.L.C. in Manhattan. Since established, the photo studio has broadened its performance to provide both design and marketing consultation in addition to art direction. It's growing roster of clients span Europe, North & South America, Asia and Oceania.

In addition to this entrepreneurial undertaking, Heydt has attended artist residencies in Iceland, Australia and New Zealand; where she has documented different forms of environmental exploitation. A published author, producer and lifelong activist, Heydt has undertaken a range of altruistic, non-profit work. Her art, anchored in social advocacy, attempts to give a voice to the veiled, forgotten, exiled, and silenced.

Heydts' vision looks beyond the ordinary. Working across different media- film, video, installation, photography, sculpture, sound and text, Heydt presents an abstract proposition for a world on the periphery of history, one that not only appears haunted by the ghosts of the past, but built on it. Esteemed as one of the pioneers of the recycled media movement, Heydt employs a range of materials often reinventing or trespassing their associative use. Heydt has exhibited in a constellation of galleries and museums throughout the world and is in the permanent collection of a number of distinguished museums.

HEYDTS WORK PRESENTS AN ABSTRACT PROPOSITION FOR A WORLD ON THE PERIPHERY OF HISTORY, ONE THAT NOT ONLY APPEARS HAUNTED BY THE GHOSTS OF THE PAST - BUT BUILT ON IT. DISRUPTING LOGICAL RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN OCCURRENCES, THE LAYERED IMAGERY CONFLATES TIME AND PLACE TO REVEAL THE UNCERTAINTIES OF A WORLD EXPLOITED BEYOND USE AND INCREASINGLY REDUCED TO A BOTTOM LINE. THE EDGE IS CLOSER THAN WE THINK, BUT ILLUSION WONT FREE US FROM REALITY, EVEN AS THE SUSTAINED NARRATIVE OF TABLOIDS BECOMES HISTORY AND THE MYTH OF PROGRESS CONTINUES TO PERPETUATE INEQUALITY. AS TECHNOLOGICAL DEPENDENCY DIMINISHES THE TANGIBILITY OF OUR EXPERIENCES, THE MEDIUM SWALLOWS THE MESSAGE.

VISUAL ARTIST SAM HEYDT HAS LIVED/WORKED IN PARIS, VENICE, AMSTERDAM, ATHENS, BUENOS AIRES, SYDNEY, REYKJAVÍK, UDAIPUR, AND VIENNA. SHE IS BOTH THE FOUNDER AND DIRECTOR OF JANE STREET STUDIO, L.L.C., A DESIGN FIRM IN BUSINESS SINCE 2012, AS WELL AS KITSCH, A GALLERY AND CONCEPT STORE LAUNCHED IN 2020. HEYDT EMPLOYS A RANGE OF MATERIALS IN HER WORK, OFTEN REINVENTING AND TRESPASSING THEIR ASSOCIATIVE USE. MARRYING IMAGES OF DESTRUCTION WITH PORTRAYALS OF THE AMERICAN DREAM, HER WORK CONFRONTS THE DISILLUSIONMENT OF OUR TIME WITH THE ECOLOGICAL AND EXISTENTIAL NIGHTMARE IT IS RESPONSIBLE FOR. HEYDTS WORK HAS BEEN SHOWN IN GALLERIES, MUSEUMS, ART FAIRS, AND FILM FESTIVALS WORLDWIDE.
